

A higher proportion of children at Belmont achieved the expected standard, or above, in reading, writing and maths combined (RWM) compared nationally 2017, writing, maths and science at KS1 than children did nationally in 2018.